VILLA IN HEIDELBERG

One Saturday night, after finishing his work, the lady called Carl Sutherland, an old hunting and fishing friend of his father's. Carl, he said when the man picked up the receiver. I'm a father. We had a baby girl. Congratulations, boy, Carl said. How is the wife? She's fine, Carl. The baby's fine too, the boy said. Everybody's fine. That's good, Carl said. I'm glad to hear it. Well, you give my regards to the wife. If you called about going hunting, I'll tell you something. The you do the this so I've yet to me this got me com wa the wh hor she go lot got all in boy. Sutherland boy wa the ma ree
